Help Save Lives by Empowering Cancer Patients, Caregivers and Families.

CancerQuest is dedicated to educating patients and the public about cancer.

We feel strongly that education can reduce the suffering due to cancer by educating patient choices and supporting cancer prevention. To achieve our goals we provide accurate and understandable information in an innovative engaging manner. Our work also includes educational visits to patient support groups and schools as well as active partnerships with community-based organizations.

Donations allow us to create new educational tools, expand our content, and ultimately reach more people.

CancerQuest is a nonprofit organization, operating under the 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status for Emory University. Donations made to CancerQuest are deductible to the fullest extent of the law.
